

Awana

Mission and Calling

Children's Ministry is a place where kids are loved unconditionally, protected uncompromisingly, and taught the truths of the Bible creatively. From our youngest babies to our oldest 5th graders, volunteers are a part of programs and environments that engage every age group at their developmental level, while helping children discover and experience who God is and who God wants them to become.

Specific Responsibilities

- Commander – Oversees more than one Awana club and/or youth program in a local church. Includes communicating vision, shepherding leaders, managing administrative duties and communicating to church leadership, parents, clubbers and leaders.
- Director – Oversees one Awana club program. Includes communicating vision, shepherding leaders, managing administrative duties and communicating to church leadership, parents, clubbers and leaders.
- Large Group Teacher – Teaches children or youth age-appropriate Bible lessons in a large group setting.
- Game Director – Plans and leads age-appropriate games during Game Time. May direct Game Time in one or more clubs.
- Leader – Builds relationships with a small group of clubbers to help them learn and understand handbook sections and Bible lessons.
- Listener – Supports the leader by listening to clubbers recite sections during Handbook Time.
- LIT (Leader-In-Training) – Teenager who serves alongside an adult leader.
